I do not subscribe to women wanting to force falsehood PR rhetoric of blame: Australian Department of Immigration Australian value egalitarianism does not condone ethnic or gender projected rhetoric of hate and/or blame so less prejudice and racism and more publick and republick. According to the Book of Common Prayer provoking God is prohibited and so warning against to err and stray is such that the use of your for God is literary terms archaic style of reverence for God so modern women provoking many people and yet demanding respect is also prohibited. Kennings of accented Norse or Saxon and hyphenated spaced suffix derivatives are not for postmodern preposition clause conjunctions of limited and minimal university reductionism so I say I reside on Druid Street and Suffix Street and not I do say Druitt Street and Sussex Street!
